

DueWork acquires JULIENS Media Group. to grow its portfolio of brands in the media sector — including lifestyle, tech and gaming

PARIS, FRANCE — DueWork provides an array of services with at its core, the goal to simplify the work of the DueWork’s Family members through guidance and expertise, thanks to their common parent brand growing power. Creating a connection between each member is effectively making everyone win in terms of growth and development.

That’s why we are happy to announce the acquisition of JULIENS Media Group. (group.juliens.me) and its team. Both assets will join the DueWork’s Family effective immediately as well as all the IP (intellectual property) related to the acquired company.

The acquisition has been offered graciously and the transition passed as intended. Henceforth, media relations, advertising and professional contacts previously made through JMG will primarily be handled by the DueWork Team.

Contacts

DueWork Team

duework.org/contact info@duework.org

JULIENS Media Group.

media-group-info@juliens.me

About DueWork:

DueWork powers dozens of websites through expertise, guidance and services and helps each member focus on what matters the most: their activity.

About JULIENS Media Group (JMG):

We are making great sites, services and content creators part of a small circle to help them grow each other by building comprehensive insights and engaging community across all platforms.